Members brave conditions

MEMBERS of Harworth and District Cycling Club braved the winter weather when they turned out for their annual New Year ride out.

Despite the freezing conditions the social run was well attended and after setting off from the sports pavilion on Scrooby Road the hardy group clocked up around 50 miles on a route that took in Styrrup, Oldcotes, Worksop, Budby and Retford.

Before heading back to Harworth the party called in at Bawtry where refreshments were enjoyed at the town's Turnpike public house.

Officials for the 2010 season were elected at the club's annual general meeting. They included club president George Morris, chairman Mick Wainwright, vice chairman Gavin Hodgson, secretary Brenda Watson, treasurer George Morris, club captain Andy Rodgers and social secretary Greg Elliott.

The club continues to hold its weekly ride on Sunday morning when men and women of all abilities can take part in rides of between 45 and 65 miles.

These social rides start from the pavilion on Scrooby Road at 8.30am. New riders are always welcome. Throughout the year the club will hold its monthly meetings at the pavilion. The next meeting takes place on Tuesday, February 2 at 7.30pm.
